Hood's Sarsaparilla Begins Its Reconstruction Work.

First, it creates an appetite. Second, it aids digestion. Third, it perfects assimilation. Fourth, it carries 100 per cent of the nourishment in the food you eat into the blood and the body, thereby enriching and vitalizing your blood, which in time renews your strength and builds up again your reserve strength and vitality.

This makes Hood's Sarsaparilla one of the great remedies of the world. From the first dose you are on a definite road to improvement. It is of inestimable value just now to restore the health and nerve force so greatly exhausted by war excitement, the grip and influenza epidemic and the changing season. It is the right medicine for you this spring. Get a bottle today. And if you need a mild, effective cathartic, get Hood's Pills—Adv.

DEMPSEY TOOK A ROAD JAUNT

Began Outside Work Today in Preparation for the Big Bout

RAN TEN MILES TO KEEP IN SHAPE

He Will Establish Quarters Three Miles from Site of the Arena

Toledo, O., May 17.—Jack Dempsey, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, was up early today for the first road work of his training grind for his championship battle with Jess Willard here July 4. He covered ten miles in the direction of the battle ground site in the Bayview park district. The object of the jaunt was to keep the challenger from growing stale through inactivity until he can locate a place for his training camp. He plans to establish quarters Monday somewhere in the shores of Maumee bay, about three miles from the site of the arena. He will do his boxing and gym work out of doors, inasmuch as the championship battle is to be fought in the open.

Tex Rickard, promoter of the contest, announced that the $80 seats would be placed on sale Monday. The lesser priced seats will be placed on sale within a week or ten days, it was said.

NERVOUS SICK HEADACHES

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Relief The First Day He Tried Them.

MR. C. E. BESWICK

160 Caroline Ave., Ogdensburg, N. Y.

"I suffered a great deal for three or four years with Nervous Sick Headache and Dyspepsia. Had to take two to four sedative powders every other day. Tried doctors—ate bran gems—took all kinds of remedies—but nothing did me good until I used 'Fruit-a-tives', or Fruit Liver Tablets. I was relieved the first day I used them. They made me well and kept me well, and I am always glad to tell people of the great things 'Fruit-a-tives' have done for me."

I have many friends in Ogdensburg now using 'Fruit-a-tives' on my recommendation."

FORD OUTLINES HIS LIBEL CASE

Attorney for Detroit Manufacturer Tries to Show Chicago Tribune

ACTUATED BY SELFISH MOTIVES

Influenced by Standard Oil and Harvester Relationships, He Declares

Mount Clemens, Mich., May 17.—Attorney Alfred J. Murphy occupied the entire forenoon yesterday in outlining the contents of Henry Ford in his billion dollars libel suit against the Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Murphy read several editorials from issues of the Tribune published in 1916 and sought to show that the Tribune's advocacy of American intervention in Mexico was due to selfish reasons.

He said that witnesses and evidence for the plaintiff would show the influence of the Standard Oil and the International Harvester companies in shaping the Tribune's policy regarding Mexico.

He said that the influence had been traced to a relationship between the McCormick family of the Tribune and McCormick family of the International Harvester company.

Attorney Elliott G. Stevenson, counsel for the Tribune, objected on grounds that the relationship was so distant as to be irrelevant and Judge Tucker said that he also failed to infer any relevancy.

Mr. Murphy, therefore, cut his remarks on this point short. He said that Harold McCormick, president of the International Harvester company, is a cousin of the father of E. R. McCormick, who is president of the Tribune company, and that Harold McCormick is the husband of Edith Rockefeller McCormick, a daughter of John D. Rockefeller, of the Standard Oil company. He pointed out that the Standard Oil company gets one-fifth of its crude oil from Mexico, and asserted that for that reason the Tribune was interested in bringing about conditions in Mexico favorable to the Standard Oil company. He stated, also, that the International Harvester company was similarly interested because of the immense amounts of sisal which it imports from Yucatan, which importations had been greatly hampered by conditions in Mexico.

Mr. Murphy, continuing this line of argument, said that the plaintiff would produce evidence to show that Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, who, with her sister, Mrs. Katherine McCormick, controls the stock of the Tribune company, maintains a residence in Washington and that in 1916, when the alleged libel editorial was published, Mrs. Patterson was on friendly social terms with Ambassador Von Bernstorff and that she was not on such terms with Ambassador Spring-Rice, representing Great Britain, nor with ambassadors of countries allied with Great Britain in the war.

In his statement Mr. Murphy asked the jury to remember that at the time of publication of the alleged libel, June 23, 1916, the United States had not entered the European war.

A few days before this editorial was published, on June 18, 1916, in fact, the secretary of war ordered the mobilization of the National Guard for service on the Mexican border, he said.

Mr. Murphy then read the editorial headed "Ford is an anarchist." The article said that Ford would not hold open the places of his men who responded to the call of their country, nor would he pay their salaries while absent, nor care for their families. Ford in the editorial, was referred to as an "ignorant idealist" and one "incapable of thought." Concluding the reading, Mr. Murphy continued:

NO NEW TRIAL OF BASEBALL SUIT

Justice Stafford Awards Baltimore Federal League Club Judgment of $240,000 and Attorneys' Fees of $64,000.

Washington, D. C., May 16.—Justice Stafford of the District of Columbia supreme court yesterday overruled the motion of organized baseball for a new trial of the suit of the Baltimore Federal league baseball club and awarded a judgment of $240,000 in favor of the club with $64,000 added for attorneys' fees. An appeal was noted by counsel for organized baseball and a bond in the sum of $350,000 furnished. The suit of the Baltimore club was brought under the Sherman anti-trust law and grew out of the disbanding of the Federal league.
